1. Spring 2012 Mic/Nite

Spring 2012 Mic/Nite will take place Wednesday, March 7, 2012, from 5:30 – 9:30 pm at “The Valarium” (112 Ramsey Avenue). There will be 13 faculty presentations and abstracts, as well as more information on the event is available at <http://provost.utk.edu/mic-nite/>. For more information on Mic/Nite please contact Beauvais Lyons at blyons@utk.edu.

2. Student Online Evaluations

UT converted the way students evaluate their instructors to a completely web-based, online system. While the Student Assessment of Instruction System (SAIS) developed as an in-class, scan form procedure, as of Fall 2011, all evaluations are taking place online, and it is expected that the online evaluation system will save 1.25 tons of paper each year, reduce overall costs and save countless hours of staff time. More information on the SAIS is available at <http://oira.utk.edu/sais/> .

While only 34% of students had completed all of their evaluations online in spring 2011, the various measures that were implemented to increase students’ awareness resulted in a much higher overall participation: In fall 2011, 50.1% of students completed all of their instructor evaluations and 70% of students filled out at least one online evaluation. A work group is going to assess how the participation rate can be further increased. In addition, Provost Martin is in the process of appointing a task force that is charged to assess what other tools could be implemented to evaluate teaching.

3. Faculty Handbook: Changes on Advising and Mentoring

The Faculty Senate has been concerned that the new section on "advising and mentoring" voted on in September 2011 (to go into effect in August 2012) had more language devoted to it than "teaching." Two issues need to be resolved prior to the Board of Trustees' meeting in June. First, "Advising and Mentoring" needs to be added to Section 3.11.4, the criteria on tenure. This can be done by adding a parenthetical to 3.11.4. The second change is more substantive: The definition of "best practices" needs to be included somewhere and may involve adding a footnote. For more information see the minutes of the Faculty Senate Meeting on Sept. 19, 2011 at http://senate.utk.edu/files/2011/09/September-2011.min\_1.pdf (p. 6-7); and the resolution from the Faculty Affairs Committee referred to in these minutes:

4. System-Wide Strategic Planning

A strategic planning process for the University of Tennessee System is now underway, with a final plan anticipated by June 2012 (<http://president.tennessee.edu/strategicplan/>). As part of this process, it needs to be clearly defined what are 'system issues' and what are 'campus issues.' Currently these lines are blurred; the system-wide plan, for example, deals with the land grant mission even though the system is not a land grant enterprise. The only land grant institutions within the UT system are UTK and UTIA. The Faculty Senate is closely monitoring this situation, and efforts to empower the system to have more engagement across the board may require looking at taxation of campuses: If specific campuses want the system to have more authority, the money to do so would need to come from them.

5. Center for Community Engagement

A Task Force under the leadership of David Schumann (dschuman@utk.edu) and Bob Rider (brider@utk.edu) has been charged with planning the creation of a Center on Community Engagement. The Center will serve as a central organization of community efforts of the campus. UTK is a member of TRUCEN (The Research University Civic Engagement Network) as are many of our peer institutions and top 25 schools. Rider will attend a TRUCEN meeting next month. The benefits of the Center will include increased retention, graduation rates, and visibility for UT. For more information see the following PowerPoint presentation that was prepared by David Schumann: <http://senate.utk.edu/files/2011/09/CE-Proposal-PP.pdf>.

6. Volunteer Spirit Statement Focus Group

The Learning Consortium meets every 3 weeks to talk about student learning and improving it. The group would like to create a statement about what it means to be a volunteer. Schumann invites all members of the campus community to write down thoughts on what it means to be a Vol. Email your thoughts on what it means to be a Vol to dschuman@utk.edu.

7. Branding

On Feb. 1, 2012, the new website for the campus was launched. The old one was created in 2007, and the new website is designed to be more user-friendly. University websites are becoming much more standardized in the fact that there are certain things prospective students expect to see when they come to a university's website. The biggest change in the website is that it has been re-architected; it is now also more user-friendly for mobile devices. In February or March of this year, departments will receive templates for redesigning their own web-pages as time allows; there is no set deadline.

8. Faculty Senate Updates

The UT Knoxville Faculty Senate is the representative body through which the faculty participates in University affairs and shared governance. Through committees and a democratically elected legislative body, it promulgates policies and regulations regarding the general educational objectives of UT Knoxville. It is, therefore, important that all faculty members stay 'connected' with the Faculty Senate by staying informed and by providing input and comments via the Senators who represent them in the Faculty Senate.

Please note that the Faculty Senate website (<http://senate.utk.edu/>) has been reorganized. Please make sure to familiarize yourself with the new layout so that you will know where to find all current and past Faculty Senate documents and reports.

The calendar for all 2011-12 meetings of the Faculty Senate and the Faculty Senate Executive Council are posted here: <http://senate.utk.edu/calendar/>
