Faculty Senate Retreat
2012

Susan Martin
Provost and Senior Vice Chancellor
Introduction and Overview

- Campus Overview
- Update on Top 25 Action Plans
- New Initiatives for the year
Campus Overview

- Board of Trustees’ Retreat
- Statewide discussion of Higher Ed.
- Vice Chancellor for Research
- Vice Chancellor for Diversity
Update on Top 25 Action Plans
Undergraduate Priority

- UTracK and One-Stop
- Strategic Instructional Fund
- Summer School
- Teaching and Learning Modalities
- Integrated Student Data
Graduation Rates (unofficial)

The chart shows the graduation rates for the years 2000 to 2008, with preliminary data for 2008. The graduation rates are categorized into four-year, five-year, and six-year graduation rates.

- Four-Year Graduation Rates:
  - 2000: 30.6%
  - 2001: 29.4%
  - 2002: 30.0%
  - 2003: 31.2%
  - 2004: 30.6%
  - 2005: 33.7%
  - 2006: 35.7%
  - 2007: 36.7%
  - 2008: Preliminary 40.0%

- Five-Year Graduation Rates:
  - 2000: 5.3%
  - 2001: 4.7%
  - 2002: 5.1%
  - 2003: 4.7%
  - 2004: 4.7%
  - 2005: 4.5%
  - 2006: 25.8%
  - 2007: 26.3%

- Six-Year Graduation Rates:
  - 2000: 24.2%
  - 2001: 23.7%
  - 2002: 24.7%
  - 2003: 24.3%
  - 2004: 25.2%
  - 2005: 24.8%
  - 2006: Preliminary 26.3%
  - 2007: Preliminary 40.0%

The data indicates an increasing trend in graduation rates, with the highest preliminary rate of 40.0% in 2008.
Graduate Education

- Strategic Plan for Growth
- Graduate Student Recruitment
- Stipends and Waivers
- Fellowships
- Graduate Student Data and Tracking
Faculty and Staff

- Faculty Salary
- Endowed Chairs and Professorships
- Faculty Productivity Reporting
Other Initiatives

- Faculty Evaluation
- Diversity
- Internationalization
- SACS and QEP
Questions?