

Calendar for New General Education Implementation Key Dates

December 2018

- New General Education course proposal forms will be available on General Education website (on Undergraduate Council website).
- As NGE courses are approved by the General Education committee and UG council, they will be listed on the General Education website to facilitate the creation of new degree program requirements.
- Note: We recommend that NGE Courses to be incorporated into degree program requirements for Fall 2021 should be submitted for approval by December 1, 2019.
- Note: We recommend that all CGE courses apply for NGE categories by April 1, 2020.

March 1, 2019

- Subcommittees will contact departments with current general education courses to let inform them of the dates for the consideration of reapproval for courses (if the courses have not already been reapproved).

Fall 2019-Spring 2020

- Departments should be finalizing the revision of their degree program requirements to include the new general education curriculum and the CIS requirement.

October 15, 2019

- Last date for submission of courses for gen ed approval under the current (not new) gen ed.

December 1, 2019

- Note: We recommend that NGE Courses to be incorporated into degree program requirements for Fall 2021 should be submitted for approval by December 1, 2019.

April 1, 2020

- Subcommittees will contact units that have not submitted CGE courses for NGE to inform them that they will be dropped unless they apply before October 15, 2020.
- Courses “dropped” from the NGE list are still required to be taught in the CGE manner until the 2020-21 catalog expires in Summer 2026 (or be dropped altogether).

September 2020-January 2021

- Last chance for All new or revised degree program requirements and new or revised courses to move through their college’s approval process for inclusion in the 2021 catalog.
- Curricula must be approved on or before Jan/Feb 2021 meeting of UG council.

October 15, 2020

Last possible date for NGE courses to be submitted to subcommittees for the 2021 Catalog.

December 1, 2020

Last possible date for all degree program requirements to be submitted to UT UG Council Curriculum Committee for the 2021 catalog.

June 2021-August 2021

- Colleges review and approve the new degree program requirements in DARS

Fall 2021

- NGE being used for new students.