

Secretary Of the Senate
Candidate Statement – M. Gimmel

Millie Gimmel is an associate professor of Spanish in the Department of Modern Foreign Languages and Literatures. She has served as associate head of her department, chair of the Spanish program and on the faculty senate from 2015-2018. She has won the Alumni Teaching Award, the College of Arts and Sciences Advising Award, the Chancellor's Advising Award and the Cunningham Outstanding Teaching Award. Her research focuses on medicine in early Modern Mexico and she is currently the director of the Spanish program service-learning class which places students throughout the community every semester. She currently serves on the general education Engaged Inquiries committee.