Up to two nominees will be presented for election by the full Faculty Senate. The representative's term of office begins on July 1 following his or her election. The representative will attend and report to the Faculty Senate Executive Council and the Faculty Senate as needed. If for any reason a representative is not able to complete his or her term, the Faculty Senate Executive Council shall appoint an individual to complete the remainder of the term.

April 1, 2019

Article II, Section 10. Election of Officers (to allow the Faculty Senate to (1) recruit eligible faculty to serve as Faculty Senate President from a larger pool of qualified faculty, (2) ensure that those eligible to serve have the protections of tenure, (3) ensure greater flexibility in the timeline to complete the election, and (4) update the election process to reflect our current practice of electronic voting).

Section 10. Election of Officers. In the spring semester of each year, the Faculty Senate shall elect a President-Elect. Each nominee shall be given the opportunity to make a brief statement relevant to his or her candidacy and respond to questions at the regular meeting of the Faculty Senate in March of each year and shall provide voting members of the Faculty Senate with a written statement regarding his or her relevant experiences and proposed contributions as Faculty Senate President in advance of that meeting. Election shall be by a majority vote of all members of the Faculty Senate taken by an electronic ~~printed mail~~ ballot before the ~~third~~ final meeting of the spring semester. One nomination for Faculty Senate Secretary and Faculty Senate Information Officer shall be made by the Executive Council subject to the approval of the Faculty Senate membership.

The President-Elect shall be chosen for a one-year term from among those members of the faculty meeting the following criteria at the time of election: (1) the holding of full-time faculty appointment with tenure ~~the rank, or equivalent rank, of assistant professor or higher~~ (2) the performance of academic duties totaling at least half-time teaching, research, service, or departmental administration; and (3) prior service on the Faculty Senate (as an administrative member, an elected faculty member, a committee or council member, or other-wise) within the last ~~five~~ ten years. In the event of death or resignation of the President-Elect or early assumption of the President's office, the Committee on Nominations and Appointments shall present to the next meeting of the Faculty Senate a new slate of at least two nominees for another election for President-Elect. Voting members of the Faculty Senate may write in additional nominees. Election shall be by a majority vote of all members of the Faculty Senate taken by ~~an printed mail~~ electronic ballot before the next meeting of the Senate. The current President shall remain in office until a successor is elected.

September 16, 2019

Section 9. Faculty Representative to the UTK Advisory Board. A representative of the UTK campus faculties will be elected by the Faculty Senate to serve a two-year term on the UTK Campus Advisory Board.

Nominees will be solicited by the Committee on Nominations and Appointments during the spring fall semester prior to the term of appointment. Up to two nominees will be presented for election by the full Faculty Senate for election at the February meeting (in alternate years) to help avoid potential conflicts that could result from having a faculty representative who has supervisory responsibilities over a student representative. The faculty representative's term of office begins on July 1 following his or her election. The representative will attend and report to the Faculty Senate Executive Council and the Faculty Senate as needed. If for any reason a representative is not able to complete his or her term, the Faculty Senate Executive Council shall appoint an individual to complete the remainder of the term.

Both long-range and short-term aspects of its role will receive the committee's attention, including budget priorities, THEC formulas, and planning for projects of The University of Tennessee or other entities that may eventually result in changes to campus facilities. The committee shall invite appropriate campus administrators to attend meetings and provide overviews of their units' budgets as needed.

The primary concerns of the Budget and Planning Committee are policy and communication. The Budget and Planning Committee is not expected to become involved with, nor engaged in, comprehensive investigations necessary as a basis for budget decisions.

G. Diversity and Inclusion Committee. Membership shall consist of at least eight faculty members. The committee chairperson is appointed by the Faculty Senate President. Three members will be committee liaisons appointed by the chairs of the Faculty Affairs Committee, the Teaching and Learning Council, and the UT System Relations Committee. The other remaining four members will be appointed by the Faculty Senate President and will reflect diverse campus constituencies.

The charge of the committee is to ~~actively support diversity and inclusion at UTK~~ a diverse, engaged, and inclusive environment through collaboration with other committees, commissions, and task forces across the university focused on diversity, engagement, and inclusion efforts.

H. Faculty Affairs Committee. Membership shall consist of nine faculty members. ~~none of whom shall be an administrator at or above the level of department head.~~ The Faculty Affairs Committee shall concern itself with the adoption and amendment of faculty governance policies and rules, including the development and refinement of criteria and procedures for faculty appointment, promotion, retention, evaluation, the granting of tenure, retirement, and discharge for cause. The Faculty Affairs Committee is responsible for reviewing proposed revisions and recommending changes to the Faculty Handbook and its appendices in accordance with the amendments procedures set forth in the Faculty Handbook. ~~and for reviewing proposed revisions and recommending changes to the Manual for Faculty Evaluation in accordance with the amendments procedures set forth in the Manual for Faculty~~ ~~Evaluation.~~ The activities of the Faculty Affairs Committee shall be conducted at all times in a manner consistent with the Trustees' Policies Governing Academic Freedom, Responsibility, and Tenure, as the same may be amended from time to time, and shall be guided by faculty governance best practices in higher education, ~~including~~ especially those identified and promoted by the American Association of University Professors.

I. Graduate Council. Membership shall consist of faculty representatives chosen for three-year terms from the schools and colleges of the university engaged in graduate work and two graduate students appointed by the Graduate Student Senate. Members shall be chosen in the spring term for terms to commence at the start of the next fall term.

Representatives shall be apportioned among the schools and colleges according to the number of graduate students enrolled in the college or school in the previous fall term, using the following table.

Graduate Students	Total Graduate Council
1 – 300	1
301 – 500	2
501 – 700	3
701 – 900	4
901 – 1100	5
1101 – 1300	6
1301 – 1500	7
1501 – 1700	8

Representatives must regularly teach graduate courses or supervise graduate study and must (1) hold full-time or continuing part-time appointment with the rank of assistant professor or higher and (2) perform academic duties consisting of at least half-time teaching, research, service or departmental administration. Ex-officio members shall be the Dean of Libraries, ~~a representative of Outreach and Continuing Education,~~ the Vice Provost and Director of the Center for Global Engagement, ~~the Director of the Center for International Education,~~ and the chairperson of the Research Council, or their respective designees. In addition, the administrative officer having primary responsibility for graduate curriculum in each college or school shall serve as ex-officio member of the Graduate Council if that person is not a college or school representative. The chairperson of the Graduate Council (known as the Chair) is a faculty member from the Graduate Council who serves for a one-year term, following a one-year term as Vice-Chair and Chair-Elect.

The Graduate Council is charged by the Faculty Senate to set standards for graduate admission, retention, and graduation; assess curricular revisions and new proposals for graduate programs; evaluate interdisciplinary, intercollegiate and international programs; ~~approve individuals to direct doctoral dissertations;~~ and consider new initiatives and other matters of policy pertaining to graduate programs.
