Revisions to the UTK-UTIA Faculty Handbook to bring it into alignment with Existing Board Policies

Introduction: Below are a few revisions to the UTK UTIA Faculty Handbook to bring it into alignment with UT Board of Trustees Policies. The sections in red are the result of changes approved by the board to BT0006 at their meeting in December 2020. The sections in green address discrepancies between BOT Policy and our current Faculty Handbook. These changes are an outgrowth of considering impact of COVID 19 on tenure-track faculty. These revisions will be presented by Vice Provost Diane Kelly at the Faculty Senate Executive Committee on February 15 and the full Faculty Senate Meeting on March 1, 2021. As board policies override the handbook, these are presented as an information item.

3.11.4.2 Extension of Probationary Period
For good cause related to procedural error, the university and a tenure-track faculty member may agree in writing to extend a six-year probationary period for a maximum of two additional years. The proposed extension must be approved in advance by the chief academic officer, the chancellor, the president (or designee), and the General Counsel (or designee).

3.11.4.2 Extension of Probationary Period
For good cause that is either related to procedural error or results from a significant disruption of University operations that has impeded the faculty member’s opportunity to conduct required research or other scholarly activity, teaching, and/or service, the university and a tenure-track faculty member may agree in writing to extend a six-year probationary period for a maximum of two additional years (not including any extension granted due to the coronavirus crisis as authorized by the Board’s March 27, 2020 action). The proposed extension must be approved in advance by the chief academic officer, the chancellor, the president (or designee), and the General Counsel (or designee), and the vice president for academic affairs.
